I'm forever grateful to have experienced life with you here every step of the way as my dad. Everything you instilled in me I will carry on forever. I'm going to 'grind till I shine' just like you always told me to, for you! - Love Ke'Mara

Dear daddy,

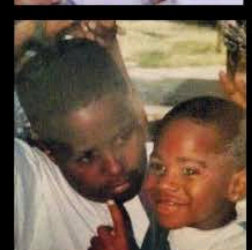

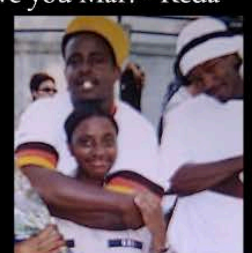

I love you so much. I will always cherish the memories you gave me. You always made sure me and my siblings were straight. You are the best Dad anyone can ask for. This is not a goodbye, it's a thank you. Thank you for bringing me into this world and loving me. Thank you for all the memories I will never forget, but instead cherish forever. - Marley

To My Better Half

It's hard for me to accept that your physical being has ascended, but I'm so glad GOD allowed us to experience the love we shared. Thank you for the greatest gifts ever, our children. Untill we meet again babe watch over us and guide us! I will always love you Mar! - Keda

"I love you dad - Lamar Stringer II

Dad you not being here with us it's truly unbelievable. To think about the future without you is crazy, like you not being at my graduation to see me walk the stage or you not being there to see me turn 16 hurts. We miss you a lot already. I will cherish and never forget the memories we made. I'm grateful for all the things you taught me and the wisdom you gave me while you were here. Thank you Dad for always supporting me and guiding me through all parts of my life. You were forever in my heart and I will forever love and miss you. LOGLIVEMYDAD! - Khloe

Loving Memory

Lamar Marcell Stringer, affectionately known as “MarSki”, was born on June 6, 1981, in Oakland, CA, to Marva Warner and George Stringer. He completed his primary education in the Oakland Unified School District and continued his academic journey through the West Contra Costa School District. It was during his time at Kennedy High School in Richmond that Lamar crossed paths with Makeda Gordon, marking the beginning of a love story that spanned 25 beautiful years and blessed them with four incredible children.

"Players don't keep score, we just just keep scoring" - Marski

After graduating from RichmondBUILD Academy in 2004, Lamar embarked on a fulfilling career in the construction and renewable energy fields at multiple Bay Area refineries. Starting as a Firewatch, he dedicated over 15 years to refining his skills, earning multiple certifications that propelled him to Pipefitter and Foreman roles throughout California and other parts of the U.S.

Outside of his professional life, Lamar was a devoted son, father, husband, uncle, cousin, and friend to many. His charm, impeccable comedic timing, and loving and caring personality, endeared him to all who had the pleasure of knowing him. Never meeting a stranger, he was the life of the party, full of jokes, and always wearing a smile. Lamar's playful spirit led to him frequently joining in on games with his children, nieces and nephews. He was a pro at competitive adult games, like Pokeno and dominoes, at family get-togethers and made sure everyone knew it.

Lamar enjoyed cooking and barbecuing for family and friends, and feasting at local eateries on his down time. He was a concert goer, naming Kanye West his favorite entertainer to see live. He had a passion for sports through coaching, cheering his children on at their games, and watching professional and college sports every weekend. A passionate sports fan, Lamar's allegiance lay with the 49ers. Kobe Bryant and LeBron James were some of his favorite players.

Lamar Marcell Stringer departed this world, leaving behind cherished memories and a legacy of love, laughter and unwavering dedication to his family and friends. May his spirit continue to shine brightly in our hearts and may we find solace in the joy and laughter he brought to our lives.
