ANGEL

*Tear drops, slow and steady, The pain so real and true,
God took another angel, And that angel, dear, was you.
Angel wings, upon the clouds, Your body softly sleeps,
Hush now little angel, No more tears you have to weep.
Little prayers are sent to you, The short life you led;
Your family will never forget you, So rest your little head.
I know God will look after you, Now you are truly alive,
Your spirit soars beyond the moon, Your legacy will survive.
You're beautiful, you're endless, Now stretch your wings and fly,
You're loved by so many, It will never be goodbye.*

OBITUARY

Christina Joyce Barnes was born on August 3rd, 1984 in Oakland, California. She is the eldest of 5 children.

Her infectious laughter and quick wit illuminated every room she entered. With her boundless humor and playful spirit, she effortlessly lifted the spirits of all who were fortunate enough to know her. Whether it was with a clever joke, a witty remark, or a hilarious anecdote, she had a remarkable talent for finding joy in life's simplest moments. She spread laughter wherever she went. Her hugs and smile welcomed you the moment she first saw you. Her ability to find humor in even the most challenging situations was a testament to her resilience and optimism. Her laughter will forever echo in our hearts, reminding us to embrace life with a smile and cherish the precious moments we share together. Just live your life was one of her favorite sayings. She lived life with enthusiasm and joy!

Christina is preceded in death by her mother, Joyce Jean Maryland Barnes, her paternal grandmother, Margaret Barnes, her maternal grandparents, Hazel Paul Maryland and Calvin James Maryland.

She is survived by her Father, Kenneth E. Barnes (Shenova), her sister Crystal Foster (Courtney), her brothers Kenneth C. Barnes and Jaylen Stewart, sisters, Kyla Barnes, Kayla Barnes and Kendell Stewart, her niece, Aubrey Foster, nephew, Carson Foster and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and beloved friends.

“Everything you need will come to you at the right time.”
